

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Stanford University
Space and Furniture Planning Guidelines

Developed by
Department of Capital Planning and Space Management
Land, Buildings & Real Estate
Stanford University

Originally Published March 2003
Updated July 2007, Jan. 2008, July 2008, April 2009

Stanford University
Space and Furniture Planning Guidelines
Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION

AUTHORITY AND ADMINISTRATION1
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS1
OVERVIEW2
DEFINITION OF TERMS.....9

SPACE PLANNING GUIDELINES

I. Offices13
 Introduction13
 Dean/VP Offices14
 Full-Time Tenure Track Faculty Offices15
 Visiting Scholar, Visiting Faculty, Lecturers, Fellows and Research Associate Offices17
 Emeritus Faculty Offices18
 Staff Offices19
 Student Office Space.....24
 Comparative Data25
 Space Planning Guideline Summary25

II. Classrooms, Computer Clusters and Conference Rooms.....27
 Classrooms28
 Computer Clusters33
 Conference Rooms35
 Comparative Data37

III. Research and Laboratory Space.....38
 Introduction38
 Planning Themes38
 Guidelines40
 A. Wet Laboratories (Biology and Bio-Medical)40
 B. Dry Laboratories45
 Comparative Data48

IV. Other Spaces49
 Office Service Space49
 Storage Space49
 Kitchen Space50

Touchdown Space	51
-----------------------	----

FURNITURE PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Introduction	53
Furniture and Workplace Program Phases To Date	54
Phase 1 - Research	54
Phase 2 – Procurement and the Choice of Two Key Vendors	55
Phase 3 – Concept Development and Furniture Guidelines	56
The “Kit of Parts”	57
Pilot Projects to Date	60
Next Steps for the Future	61
Conclusion	62
Appendix	63

REFERENCE DOCUMENTS

A. Office Sizes – Comparative Guidelines	78
B. Classrooms – Comparative Guidelines and Instructional Space Master Plan	80
C. Research Space – Comparative Guidelines	92